

I would like to whole heartedly express that I am against this as it will render my existing equipment useless. I beleive that citizens such as myself should have the right to record HD television broadcasts.